

REVOLUTIONS AND EVOLUTIONS

Dear students and PhD students, we cordially extend our invitation to participate in our upcoming scientific forum, titled "REVOLUTIONS AND EVOLUTIONS". We are delighted to offer you this esteemed opportunity to showcase your scientific aptitude and engage in insightful discussions with your peers. We assure you that this event will be a remarkable platform for you to exhibit your scientific expertise and network with fellow academics.

Opportunities to participate in the scientific forum:

- Remotely (online)
- Attending in person

The different ways to participate in the scientific forum are:¹:

- Scientific paper
- Science poster
- Participation in the round tables²
- Scientific workshop³

The deadlines are:

- We would like to request that all participation requests for the upcoming scientific forum be submitted by 12.02.2024 through the link provided below.:

<https://forms.gle/JGymYaG9cSDMWZo5A>.

¹ You can engage in various forms of our scientific forum or participate in all of them. Your participation in any or all of these forums would be highly appreciated and would contribute to advancing knowledge in our field..

² We are excited to announce the launch of a new platform that fosters interdisciplinary exchange of ideas. The platform offers a free format for meeting and communicating between different scientific fields, with topics to be announced in due course. We believe this initiative will help facilitate knowledge sharing and promote innovation, and we are confident that it will be of great value to the scientific community.

³ At the scientific workshop, participants will have the opportunity to collaborate with distinguished researchers and specialists from a variety of fields. The primary aim of the workshop is to foster interdisciplinary collaboration and demonstrate the potential for communication through science. Throughout the day, attendees will have the option to choose from a range of creative corners in which to participate. The creative corners are designed to provide participants with a hands-on learning experience. Each corner will be led by a specialist who will guide attendees through the process of exploring the topic in greater depth.
