This internship is designed as a practical introduction to the profession of a financial advisor and the broader business environment in which this role operates. Interns will not only learn about the theoretical side of the industry, but will also take part in activities that simulate real professional responsibilities and business situations.

What the internship includes

Teamwork and leadership experience

Interns will work in separate teams on tasks, projects, and practical assignments throughout the program. An important part of the internship is the development of teamwork, communication, and problem-solving skills.

In addition, each intern will have the opportunity to experience the role of a team leader or manager for a certain period of time. This allows students to gain first-hand exposure to leadership, responsibility, decision-making, and team coordination.
